

Mood Board - "Matthew"

By Ella

About the second character I chose, Matthew, in his color range I don't have appropriate photos or artwork to show his key features such as justice and adventure. So in order to show a complete character mood board, I found two license-free images online: image 1 of a lion and image 2 of a picture showing the back of FBI agent. I believe it's a good way to show the main character and career of Matthew.
